Can you benefit by filing a Lender Fraud Law suit?

FREE Lender Lawsuit Fraud Analysis Report by CPAC Non Profit Law Clinic!

- 1) First, did the lender who you think violated your rights have a duty to refrain from the fraud activity that you think would form the basis of a suit or did they have a legal duty to do something and then did not? It is very difficult to determine the answer to that question and will depend on State law and possibly administrative law in your State as well as Federal Law.
- 2) A Second essential is if there are compensable damages. Is there any damage for which a Court can award you monetary compensation? Can the Court award you monetary awards or Injunctive relief (order the Lender to do something or stop doing something) that will benefit you?
