NOTE: This program is specifically intended to assist victims of verbal abuse and control in getting emotionally and physically healthy, and if they choose to leave, help give them the financial freedom to do so, which is so often an issue in them making their escape from an abuser. The program is also intended for victims and REFORMING abusers who have chosen to stay together because he is ACTIVELY AND TRULY reforming his behavior. We would never recommend that a victim stay with her abuser who refuses to change.
