BBB Ratings System Overview

BBB Accreditation

National Employee Benefits Group is not BBB Accredited.

Businesses are under no obligation to seek BBB accreditation, and some businesses are not accredited because they have not sought BBB accreditation.

To be accredited by BBB, a business must apply for accreditation and BBB must determine that the business meets BBB accreditation standards, which include a commitment to make a good faith effort to resolve any consumer complaints. BBB Accredited Businesses must pay a fee for accreditation review/monitoring and for support of BBB services to the public.

Reason for Rating

BBB rating is based on 16 factors. Get the details about the factors considered.

Factors that lowered National Employee Benefits Group's rating include:

- > Length of time business has been operating.
- > BBB does not have a clear understanding of this business.

Factors that raised National Employee Benefits Group's rating include:

- > Complaint volume filed with BBB for business of this size.
- > Response to 9 complaint(s) filed against business.
- > Resolution of complaint(s) filed against business.
- > BBB has sufficient background information on this business.
