Managing Attorney For Sierra Pacific Law Group, P.C.

THOMAS A. MOORE.

Thomas Moore has been practicing law for the past twenty years, specializing in complex litigation and business development. Mr. Moore attended Chaminade University of Honolulu, graduating Magna Cum Laude. Thereafter, he attended Hastings College of the Law, and immediately began practicing law in the San Francisco Bay Area.

After three years of representing clients in high profile litigation in Northern California, Mr. Moore was recruited to work for one of the largest law firms in Southern California where he specialized in the representation of pharmaceutical companies and medical devices manufacturers. Mr. Moore was later recruited to run the Los Angeles office of a major medical malpractice defense firm, successfully representing hundreds of doctors in the defense of medical malpractice claims.

Mr. Moore has continued to successfully represent large insurance companies in the negotiation and recovery of million dollar insurance claims, as well as representing large companies in the private sector in commercial/business litigation. Over the last several years Mr. Moore has recovered millions of dollars in subrogation on behalf of the Insurance Companies he represents.

Presently, Mr. Moore is a member of a network of attorneys who are helping consumers who need assistance with financial restructuring. Tom felt the need to help many of those consumers who need help in today's economy. Mr. Moore has researched many different types of legal programs available to consumers today and has become a leading advocate for the consumer in this harsh economic climate.
