Go to Facebook and search for MLG Law Group then click message (right upper corner) and message me.

I am the administrator for that page but you will not see that fact on the page. MLG screwed me out of $3,780 and did nothing of what they said they would.

We now have three names to go after in the MLG Law Group: Steve Bolen, Chuck Lanzarone, and someone who calls himself Mr. Miller.---I'm the one who created the facebook page for the MLG Law Group so we can get contact information for everyone in order to file a class-action law suite--There is enough money involved to attract some very good attorneys. By clicking on message on that facebook page, your message will come to me. If you don't want to do that, my email address is s.croghan9@yahoo.com. Thanks!--Stuart

Thieves who do not return phone calls. DO NOT USE THEIR debt REDUCTON PROGRAM. IT IS A SCAM. Although have left 2 messages a day for 10 days I have NEVER once had a return phone call. I was promised a refund withn 3 days ( money they took out of my account in "error"). I had to close my checkng account to keep them from taking more. Lesson learned

BEWARE

Steve Bolen is as unethical and dishonest as they come. I retained this jerkoff for $1500 to handle a bankruptcy. I was able to pay off my debtors and asked for a refund in 2007. I am still trying to get my money in 2009, was referred to corporate in South Dakota and still can't get anyone on the phone. The company is a scam. I will have to sue to get my money back.

Outstanding and professional service from this firm. I had a complicated divorce and they fixed it so not only did I not have to pay alimony to my ex, they made him pay it to me. I went in expecting to pay but he would up paying me thanks to their help. All together, they got me about $60,000 over the next 3 years I would never had gotten it if were not for them. I cannot recommend them highly enough.

BUYER BEWARE! Walnut Justice Center is the same as the Miller Justice Center. The Steve Bolen who prepared our documents has an F rating with the BBB. Steve Bolen finished our trust & will documents and insisted we pay for them up front. The pertinent information on the recording document was WRONG & could not be notarized until it was changed at the escrow company. The health care directives were incorrect, we found countless typos. The documents all had to be changed at the escrow company before we had them witnessed and notarized. Their "trust department" who typed these documents never proofread them and sent them back to us without any care. We were victimized by this company and taken for $695.00. I am warning people on here that their associate Miller Justice has A rating with the BBB because no one knows that these two men work in the same office. Douglas G. Miller is on an AVVO ratings website has been cited for professional misconduct by a state disciplinary authority. BUYER BEWARE!

I have used 5 lawyers over the past 20 years and this firm is the best. I was in a custody dispute with my ex and my old lawyer told me I would have to pay $4000 a month in child and spousal support and the best I could get would be visitation every other weekend and no custody. I terminated my old lawyer and hired Mr. Miller who got me joint custody and my support payment is only $330. Plus my ex has to pay my legal fees. This firm did a great job for me and I am only sorry I did not know about them sooner.

I received superior service from Mr. Bolen and Mr. Miller of this firm who handled by bankruptcy. I was in an emergency situation and my home was being foreclosed in 3 days. To expedite my case they got the information they needed for my BK by telephone then got docs ready for my signature within 2 hours then sent a runner to my home so I could sign the documents immediately. They filed my case the same day and saved my home from foreclosure. I recommend them highly.

Do not do business with this law firm. They will take your money and will NEVER call you back. I am out $848!!! I have a had file a complaint with the State Bar of California and a year later, I am still waiting for a refund. This Law Office is crooked. Steve Bolen is the biggest crook of all!!! There is nothing positive to say about this firm.
