Consumer Credit Counseling is now FinancialHope Counseling and Education

News-Sentinel staff reports
Tuesday, October 30, 2012 - 3:36 pm

A long-established counseling service that helps people improve desperate financial circumstances will continue doing the same work, but under a different name.

Consumer Credit Counseling Service of Northeastern Indiana, also known as CCCS, is changing its name to FinancialHope Counseling and Education.

The nonprofit founded in 1965 will continue to offer free counseling and education to clients from Fort Wayne and outlying areas, provide reverse mortgages, foreclosure prevention, bankruptcy pre-filing and education, and budget and debt management services, according to a statement announcing the name change.

For more information, call the group at 432-8200 or 1-800-432-0420 or see its website at www.financialhope.org.
