Top Producer? - We'll Show You The Money (Dallas, Texas)

We are a student loan processing company dedicated to saving our clients substantial amounts of money on the repayment of their federal student loans. Our company started almost two years ago in Lake Forest, CA. and we opened our newest office in North Dallas on November 19, 2012. Since that time, we have enjoyed tremendous success and we now have several sales specialists who are well on their way to making between $6k to $9k in commissions in only their second full month with the company.

All of our leads are inbound calls from people who are serious about lowering their student loan payments. Right now, we need more sales specialists who are highly motivated to succeed at the highest levels. Please forward your resume to lgoodwyn@StudentLoanProcessing.US if you feel that you are a good candidate for the position.
