By clicking “submit,” you understand that no attorney-client relationship will exist unless we mutually agree to represent you in writing.

By clicking “submit,” you understand not to send us any information contained in an e-mail or any attachment that you believe is highly confidential until such time as we have indicated to you that we are able to review that information.

By clicking “submit,” you agree that submitting unsolicited e-mail information to us does not constitute a request for legal advice and that you are not forming an attorney-client relationship with us by submitting that information.

By clicking “submit,” you recognize that our review of your information, even if it is confidential and even if it is transmitted in a good faith effort to retain us, does not preclude us from representing another client directly adverse to you, even in a matter where that information could and will be used against you.
