MISUSE OF BBB NAME AND/OR LOGO

In March 2017, it was brought to the attention of BBB that the business was utilizing the BBB Torch symbol in the email signatures of their employees. This business location is not accredited by this BBB and our policies prohibit such a reference.

PATTERN OF COMPLAINTS

As of March 2017, BBB files indicate that this business has a pattern of complaints concerning deceptive advertising (consumers allege they were deceived by the company's marketing materials that the business was affiliated with a government agency), high pressure sales tactics, high up-front fees for service, and poor customer service.

BBB requested for the business to review and respond to these complaint allegations and provide an action plan for how to eliminate the underlying cause for the pattern of complaints. To date, the business has failed to provide a response to this request.
