Hey Steve, my name is Dana Micallef, President of American Consumer Credit. You uh sent me some mug shots of myself and uh I just wanted to . . . really though, I just wanted to see if you were interested in sitting down and discussing our options here man, um you know you can have [unintelligible] present, lawyers present or not, I have staff lawyers, you have staff lawyers you know we can . . . I hired a firm in Boston. Uh I'm ready to get down on this but I figure I'd give you a shout to talk it out like two men. I have ways that I can generate you a shit ton more business and not what you're getting right now. If you notice I own my industry and you could own yours and we could resolve the problems we have because I'm having the same problems too man. Anyway, give me a call and maybe we can talk. My personal cell phone number is 386-547-5322. I'm just a man trying to, you know, get things done. Dude I've been sober six years so those mug shots are over six years old so . . . you know. . . just educate yourself on the man your talking to first. I help a lot of people out of a problem just like you do so maybe we can sit down as men and resolve our differences. Thank you. Hope to hear from you.
