Attorneys

Barrow and Williams has a cadre of legal professionals who have excelled in their areas of practice. We represent clients at all levels and provide ongoing consultation and tailored support. Our attorneys are active in a wide variety of public, professional, charitable, community and civic leadership organizations and serve on the boards of major profit and non-profit institutions and local community organizations. They demonstrate their continuing commitment to quality and integrity by acting as contributing authors to respected legal and business publications, and as speakers before legal and business groups.
