We are extremely grateful to Timeshare Exit Team (TET) for re-leaving us from that damned Timeshare. Although it took over two years to go through the process and at times it was extremely frustrating, over all it was well worth the time effort and money spent. While we were never able to get a letter from our timeshare we have been assured by that the process is complete. This gives you some idea how deceitful and truly unethical the timeshare industry is. Thank you. Bill & *****

I was very happy that I could actually talk to a 'real' person in an office locally, not just a voice on the end of the phone, or a faceless email. I am very grateful for the professional, respectful way the entire process was deal with and I would highly recommend them if you would like to get out of your time share. Merry Christmas!

This business scammed me just like the timeshare company did. I think the whole get out of your timeshare business is just an offshoot of the original timeshare companies. I was told I'd be out of my timeshare within 9 to 18 months and that they had experience in dealing with my timeshare company. I've had to harness them for any updates. Last time I was told they can keep my money for a reasonable amount of time. I think 22 months is long enough (25 if you actually count from the time they took my money). I still pay my timeshare mortgage and my maintenance fees. Screwed all the way around. Do not give your money to this company.

Although it cost us a lot of money, RH did their job well. The time share companies are unreasonable about folks getting out. Our kids could never afford the fees,so we were pleased that RH found a way to get us out.

We were not too bright and got tied up in not one, but TWO timeshares! We were able to work with the Timeshare Exit Team to get us out of both. It took quite a bit of time, but was worth the wait to not have to worry about paying annually to something we were never going to use. The team was always very professional and kept us informed of every step along the way. I can't tell you happy I was when we received the notice we were finally done with the timeshares! They said they could get us out...and they did! I'm very grateful for their services!

Do not use this company. Before we signed contract and gave them $ they assured us that if we stopped making payments on the loan it would not affect our credit. This was totally untrue first it showed disputed on our report and then default. Also the company that works with them to correct our credit report did not do that. It took us months and numerous calls and efforts on our part to take care of this. We should have just paid off the loan and not paid Timeshare Exit Team. It was a nightmare.

I appreciate the fact that I have a legal document that ensures my exit which I would not have been able to secure but I don't know exactly what was done in the time it took to get closure.

It took many months before it was finally settled but I am out of that timeshare! I did not have to pay any maintenance fees during that time! I am happy now since hubby has medical issues and we only travel locally! My timeshare was paid for when I purchased it. I think that made the transaction with Timeshare Exit easier!!

I was very pleased with the outcome. I sometimes wish they would have contacted me more often with updates as to what was going on. I was getting a little nervous with the long wait time. However, in the end they were very professional and got the job done.

The Timeshare Exit /Team completed the exit from our Timeshare commitment 5/23/2016. We were extremely satisfied with the professional way it was accomplished. We have told friends who have said they may want to exit their timeshare commitment that Timeshare Exit Team is the only way to go if they want it done correctly.

Just one payment to this team and that's all it took. They kept me up to date with what was happening. It took 2 years for the team to get it done so it must of been a difficult company to work with. I have never heard from my Timeshare company so all must be well. I've not paid any more maintenance fees for 2 years now.

It took about 26 months but finally got out of my timeshare. I understood going into it could take from 18-24 months just happy I am out of the timeshare. I would recommend them as there are alot of phoney companies out there claiming to provide such service and the Timeshare Exit Team delivered on their service.

What a relief to be free of our time share. It was costly and a long wait but I felt confident all the way thru that Timeshare Exit Team would fulfill their promise and they did. I appreciate that they kept me posted along the way. Thank you.

Our timeshare changed corporate hands several times making Timeshare Exit Team's job more difficult. They stayed with it over three years, keeping us informed and we got the desired result. We are pleased and thankful.
