Updates:

1. In the massive case, Ronald v. Bank of America, Los Angeles Superior Court Case No. BC409444, in which the Firm is representing more than one thousand California consumers against attempted foreclosures by Bank of America, the Firm recently -- in October, 2010 -- obtained an order in favor of all clients and against the Bank from Federal Judge Manuel Real. Judge Real referred to one of the Bank's arguments as "absurd" and threw the Bank out of Federal District Court with respect to the case.

2. On January 11, 2011, the Los Angeles Superior Court -- the Honorable William Highberger -- ruled that the Ronald case states valid causes of action against Bank of America. Discovery and depositions are now being conducted. The case is rapidly moving forward in California State and Appellate Court. The Firm is unaware of any mass joinder case in which the Court has accepted the complaint and allowed Plaintiffs to proceed.

The firm is unaffiliated with Mr. Matt Davis, Esq., and urges you to read the disclaimer set forth below and on the portion of this website entitled "Contact Us". As of March 6, 2011, it has been reported to the Firm that Mr. Davis was or is involved with an organization of unknown origin called Mass Litigation Alliance. Several consumers have contacted the firm to inquire about Mr. Davis and statements allegedly made by Mr. Davis' or his agents to the effect that the Firm is no longer accepting new clients. To the contrary and in the avoidance of any doubt, the firm is actively taking cases nationwide to stop what is the most significant and largest bank scandal in the history of this Country. The Firm's intention is to not turn away any client unless and until the banks have ceased their unlawful conduct against United States citizens. The reports regarding Mr. Davis are emblematic of the industry-wide problem of identity theft and fraud, and that is why these matters are disclosed here in addition to the disclaimer sections set forth below and on the "Contact Us" pages.

As the names of additional Law Firms or Organizations are uncovered as unlawfully utilizing the Firm's name or its marks, the Firm shall identify such entities and update this website at the first available opportunity.

The consultations given by the firm are at no charge.

Important Notice: In view of the federal banking crisis, MJS & Associates is receiving massive intake of calls, solicitations, and inquiries. In this climate of "viral" news, MJS & Associates has seen or heard many opinions of others claiming to be involved with or associated with MJS & Associates. Some of the calls, solicitations, inquiries and opinions are legitimate homeowners seeking to protect themselves or legitimate associates of the Firm. Others are persons, acting without any authority, wishing to capitalize on what MJS & Associates started way back in March, 2009. Please be aware that no person is authorized to speak for MJS & Associates absent an authentic written instrument demonstrating their consultancy or relationship with MJS & Associates. Furthermore, MJS & Associates does not represent any person absent first undertaking a binding agreement to do so. The Firm strongly advises you to not accept imitations. First, verify the involvement with MJS & Associates and verify the information being given to you. In the event of any questions whatsoever, please contact the Firm and we will clear up any confusion.

We hope to see you again! Check back later for new updates to our website. There's much more to come!
