More About Eric

Mr. Farrington started a Retail clothing business and moved to Dallas. As an example of his ability to excel, he sold 4,000 pairs of blue jeans a month on street corners of Dallas.

He started taking Real Estate courses and attending seminars. This led to his beginning to buy old houses, restore them and sell them for profit. With a great deal of prayer, preparation and personal risk, the savvy businessman has become one of the most successful Real Estate Moguls in Dallas. He believes that adversity creates opportunity."

While homeless himself, Mr. Farrington was able to take $750.00 and purchase a 1000 unit apartment complex. Also, after becoming certified in tax credit compliance, he developed a 137-unit apartment building and successively sold them to investors. He has continued buying and selling residential and commercial properties over the last two decades. He also owns a construction company that renovates and develops properties.

Later in his professional career, Mr. Farrington has become a builder and developer of residential homes. He then founded several Real Estate Company's. These companies help homeowners salvage as much of their equity as possible. He continues to grow this business into 2006 and over the last five (5) years, he has turned over the business, 1350 with a 35 percent return. Mr. Farrington has received several awards including – Outstanding Young Man of America and the Ronald Reagan Award. He is also a 4th degree Black Belt in Taekwondo and works out daily.

Mr. Farrington has been said to be the next Donald Trump of Real Estate. His electrifying personality and mentality will move you to make the necessary changes in your life to achieve success. Mr. Farrington's goal and purpose as a successful businessman is to create a better economic environment for people, while showing individuals how to reach their full potential. His motto is: Adversity Creates Opportunity. His belief is that you only fail when you don't try. Anyone who tries or puts forth effort can never fail.
