

Kathryn Stetz

“Speech is power: speech is to persuade, to convert, to compel.” -Ralph Waldo Emerson

Kathryn Stetz joined Qorvis in 2008 as an associate after completing an internship with the company. Stetz provides media and public relations, social media consultation, brand positioning and event planning to clients. She works on several teams, including Finmeccanica, Sun Microsystems Federal, the National Italian American Foundation, Americans for Transportation Mobility and the Washington Kastles.

Pertinent Background

Prior to joining Qorvis, Stetz assisted in media relations at the Council on Foundations. Additionally, she served as Special Projects & Events Coordinator at HRI, Inc., where she worked to execute company events.

Education

Stetz graduated from Pennsylvania State University with a B.A. in Public Relations and a minor in Sociology.
