Our Firm is now underwriting this initiative in your state.

If you have over $10,000 of unsecured credit you may qualify for this offer in compromise. This program is available for those that are experiencing a financial hardship.

If you are experiencing any of the issues listed below, you may be able to find immediate relief by contacting our office today.

1. Your credit card balances are rising while your income is decreasing.
2. You are only paying the minimum amounts required on your accounts or maybe even less than the minimums.
3. You're juggling bills. For example, you apply for another credit card and use cash advances from it to pay an existing card.
4. You are at or perilously near the limit on each of your credit cards.
5. You consistently charge more each month than you make in payments.
6. You are working overtime to keep up with your credit card payments.
7. You don't know how much you owe and really don't want to find out.
8. You have received phone calls or letters about delinquent bill payments.
9. You are using your credit card to buy necessities like food or gasoline.
10. Your credit cards are no longer used for the sake of convenience, but because you don't have money.
11. You are dipping into savings or your IRA to pay your monthly bills.
12. You are hiding the true cost of your purchases from your spouse.
13. You're playing the card game by signing up for every credit card that sends you an unsolicited offer.
14. You have just lost your job, or are fearful that you are about to, and are concerned about how you will pay all your bills.

When you call you will be given an assessment of your financial picture and information about what you can do today to get relief.

Please email with your phone number, name and the best time to be reached. A counselor will call you with in 1 hour (during normal business hours).

Or you can call 1-877-695-3328 ext 301 for immediate information.

*There is no cost for this consultation and you will not be transferred or sold to a marketing company.
You will be contacted by the counselor assigned to your request.
